Re: Amendola v. Bristol-Myers Squibb Company, 07 Civ. 6088 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

We represent the Defendant Bristol-Myers Squibb Company in the above-captioned action, and write on behalf of both parties in order to clarify the Pretrial Scheduling Order issued on September 13. Although the Order directs that counsel must submit a letter to the Court regarding the standard for authorizing notice to potential plaintiffs by September 19, our notes of the pretrial conference reflect that the date set for these letters was October 1. A conversation yesterday with the Courtroom Deputy also confirmed this date. Accordingly, the parties jointly request that the Pretrial Scheduling Order be amended to reflect October 1 as the operative date.

Respectfully submitted,
